The Mission of a Toastmasters Club is to provide a mutually supportive and positive learning environment in which each member has the opportunity to develop and practice communication and leadership skills, which in turn foster self-confidence and personal growth.

Remember: All roles are important! If you can not attend the meeting, then contact our VP of Education.

~~~~ Dues Are Due ~~~~

Our semi-annual dues are due and need to be must be to our club Treasurer on or before the next NWTM meeting on April 1. Northwestern Toastmasters gets credit for turning in dues on time. Plus it counts toward becoming a Presidents Distinguished Club. (This is an award that Northwestern has earned each year since the program was established way back when John Clark was our President.

Please send a check for $31.50 (payable to "Northwestern Toastmasters") to:

A guy goes into a bar, orders four shots of the most expensive 30-year-old single malt Scotch whisky and downs them one after the other. The bartender says, "You seem to be in a great hurry." The guy says, "You would be too if you had what I have." The bartender asks, "What have you got?" "Fifty cents," is the reply.

A guy walks into a bar and says "Ouch!"

A termite walks into a bar and asks, "Is the bar tender here?"

A cheeseburger walks into a bar, and the bartender says, "Sorry, we don't serve food in here."

~~~~~
A tourist goes into a bar where a dog is sitting in a chair playing poker. He asks, "Is that dog there really playing poker?" And the bartender says, "Yeah, but he's not too smart. Whenever he has a good hand, he starts wagging his tail."
